*AJS 50th Annual Conference Photo Release

I hereby authorize the Association for Jewish Studies to photograph or film me and consent to the use of my likeness and image in any and all publications, educational materials, research, marketing, advertising, news media, and Web materials. I understand and agree that such materials, including all negatives, positives, digital images, and prints shall become and remain the sole property of the Association for Jewish Studies and I shall have no right or title to such items. I agree that the AJS does not owe me any compensation for the acts that I have consented to in this agreement. I further understand and agree that these materials may be kept on file and used by AJS for potential future purposes and further agree to release the AJS from any and all liability arising from or in connection with the taking, use, publication, or dissemination of such materials.

AJS 50th Annual Conference 50 & Forward Party

Sunday, December 16, 6:00 - 7:30 PM. Featuring music and light food, the AJS 50 and Forward party will take place on Sunday evening in lieu of the gala dinner. The cost of the party is included in your conference registration fee, but we do ask that when you register for the conference, you RSVP for the party. Everyone who registers/RSVPs in advance of the conference will receive one free drink at the party!

Please note that the 2018 AJS Annual Conference Plenary Lecture will be delivered by incoming President of Williams College, Maud Mandel, and will take place on Sunday afternoon, in an earlier and dedicated time slot - Sunday, December 16, 2:30 - 4:00 PM. We hope that this new time slot will make it possible for many more members to participate. The plenary will also include the announcement of the 2018 Jordan Schnitzer Book Awards and special programming to mark this anniversary occasion. A coffee break will precede the plenary lecture.
