*AJS 51st Annual Conference Photo Release

I hereby authorize the Association for Jewish Studies to photograph or film me and consent to the use of my likeness and image in any and all publications, educational materials, research, marketing, advertising, news media, and Web materials. I understand and agree that such materials, including all negatives, positives, digital images, and prints shall become and remain the sole property of the Association for Jewish Studies and I shall have no right or title to such items. I agree that the AJS does not owe me any compensation for the acts that I have consented to in this agreement. I further understand and agree that these materials may be kept on file and used by AJS for potential future purposes and further agree to release the AJS from any and all liability arising from or in connection with the taking, use, publication, or dissemination of such materials.

AJS 51st Annual Conference Welcome Reception

Sunday, December 15, 6:00 - 7:00 PM. There is a separate Sunday dinner available for purchase as part of the Conference Meals. Featuring music and light food, the AJS Welcome Reception will take place on Sunday evening in lieu of the previously held gala dinner. The cost of the party is included in your conference registration fee, but we do ask that when you register for the conference, you RSVP for the reception.

Please note that the 2019 AJS Annual Conference Plenary Lecture will be delivered by Professor David Nirenberg in conversation with Dr. Lila Corwin Berman, and will take place on Sunday afternoon, in an earlier and dedicated time slot - Sunday, December 15, 2:15 - 3:45 PM. We hope that this new time slot will make it possible for many more members to participate. The plenary will also include the announcement of the 2019 Jordan Schnitzer Book Awards. A coffee break will succeed the plenary lecture.

 Special Conference Events

Please read <https://www.associationforjewishstudies.org/annual-conference/2019-plan-your-stay/special-events> prior to registering for these events for details, including timing, limitations, and cancellation information.
