Littman
The Littman Library of Jewish Civilization

Littman E-Library

Founded by Louis Littman in memory of his father to explore, explain, and perpetuate the Jewish heritage, the Littman Library of Jewish Civilization published its first book in 1965. The Littman E-Library was launched in March 2017. It gives readers access to the definitive scholarship and careful editing that characterize Littman books, but on a fully searchable digital platform.

In 2024, the Littman E-Library will consist of a 161-volume digital library with over 46,000 pages of solid research in Jewish studies across a comprehensive range of subject areas including history, philosophy, religious studies, cultural studies, and sociology.

Browse the entire Littman E-Library: liverpooluniversitypress.co.uk/r/lejc

Ebook volumes to be added to the Littman E-Library in January 2024:

2024 Pricing: £6,360 / US$7,950*
• One-off purchase of the existing collection of 155 ebook volumes and 6 ebook volumes to be added in January 2024 plus five years' worth of future content.
• Online access to these volumes will be in perpetuity and there are no online hosting fees.
* Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium (SCELC) members and affiliates receive a 15% discount on the list price - please visit the SCELC website for further information.

To order, request a 30-day free trial of select content or if you have any queries, please contact Jessica Thompson at J.Thompson18@liverpool.ac.uk.